VOLUME 10

COLUMBIA, ADAIR COUNTY, KENTUCKY, WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER 3, 1907.

NUMBER 48

HON. L. C. WINFREY.

Democratic Candidate to Represent Adair and Cumberland in the Legislature.

HIS CANDIDACY HEARTILY RECEIVED.

For the past week many voters of this county have been urging Mr. Logan C. Winfrey to permit them to file a petition, asking that his name be put upon the ballots in Adair and Cumberland counties as a Democratic candidate for the Legislature. Last Monday he yielded to their wishes, and a petition was immediately prepared, and in a short time more than the necessary number of names were secured.

Mr. Winfrey needs no introduction to the voters of Cumberland county, where he was born and reared. He is a son of Eld. Clint Winfrey, who lives near Beck's Store. As a young man he attended school in Columbia, teaching at intervals and studying law. After he was admitted to the bar he removed to Albany where he enjoyed good practice. Two and one-half years ago he became a citizen of Columbia, forming a partnership with Mr. F. R. Winfrey, the firm doing a good practice.

Mr. Winfrey is in the prime of manhood; is a sober and discreet gentleman and a lawyer of ability. He has always been a consistent Democrat, and will, if elected, make a Representative of whom we will all feel proud.

Let those voters who want a true Representative of the people of Adair and Cumberland, see that Mr. Winfrey is elected. With such a Representative the interests of the district will be securely guarded.

HON. BEN LEE HARDIN.

This distinguished gentleman addressed a very large audience at the court house last Monday afternoon in the interest of the Democratic State ticket. Mr. Hardin was born and reared in Columbia, and his friends of boyhood days were here from all parts of the county to hear him. In the forenoon he was kept busy shaking hands with old associates and talking off incidents of long ago.

Before Mr. Hardin began speaking the Columbia Brass Band played several stirring airs, and when the music ceased, the speaker was introduced in appropriate language by Mr. Rollin Hurt.

When Mr. Hardin arose to make his address he was greeted in true Kentucky style. In beginning Mr. Hardin paid a beautiful tribute to his old home after which he took up national issues which he handled for about ten minutes. Reaching State issues he spoke for three quarters of an hour, making a strong speech for the Democratic aspirants to office from Governor down. He was given the closest attention, his speech evidently doing good. There were a number of Republicans in the audience who listened from first to last with a great deal of interest.

When Mr. Hardin concluded Mr. L. C. Winfrey, Democratic candidate to represent Adair and Cumberland, made a short talk telling the people that in the event of his election he would be the representative of his constituents—the interests of Adair and Cumberland counties. His candidacy has created much enthusiasm, and many believe that he will be elected.

TO PARENTS.

Mr. J. N. Coffey, postmaster at Columbia, requests us to state that his clerks are very much annoyed every evening by children who visit the office and keep up a continuous chatting until the mail is distributed. It is a great annoyance, and their action retards the work in the office. Parents will confer a great favor upon the postmaster by keeping their children at home until the mail is ready for distribution. By so doing persons who receive mail at this office will get it much sooner.

MEANS BUSINESS.

Special to Danville Advocate. Hustonville, Ky., Oct. 2.—President J. F. Allen, of the Danville, Scottsville & Nashville Railroad, arrived here from New York Friday. After renting the Newton Hotel block for office purposes, getting possession Oct. 1, he tried to rent a dwelling for his family but found none vacant. He says work will commence at once and be pushed vigorously. Mr. Allen says the money necessary to build the road has been secured and the road is now to be built.

The road is to pass through Columbia and many believe that Mr. Allen has got matters in proper shape to carry the project to a finish.

The Adair County Court manifested its interest in internal improvements last Friday when it appropriated three thousand dollars assist in building a pike to the Green county line. Good roads will increase the population of the county, and the additional tax will not hurt any one. We are glad this step has been taken, and we would rejoice to see pikes running to the Cumberland, Casey, Metcalf, and Russell lines. There would be of greater benefit to a large majority of the people of this section than a railroad.

Now is a good time to see that the chimneys are right. It may save much trouble, as a fire means more than the burning of a building generally. Get the fires in good shape for winter fires, and see that all cracks, crevices and holes made by loosened mortar are all made safe. See that a safe place is made in which the daily ashes may be emptied without danger of setting something to burning. These may seem small matters, but it pays to look after them.

FARMERS INSTITUTE.

Hons. R. C. Crenshaw, W. T. Kane and E. C. Martindale, sent out by the Department of Agriculture, were here last Thursday and Friday to talk to the farmers of Adair county to advance new ideas in agricultural pursuits. The appointments were not made at a propitious time, as the farmers were generally busy, cutting corn and tobacco, hence but few heard them. Those who did, however, state that they received some valuable information.

Every body in town will be glad to know that Mr. Geo. T. Flowers, Jr., of this place, has been granted a pension of eight dollars per month. Mr. Flowers served in the Spanish-American War, and while in the Philippines he was sick a great deal, a sufferer of rheumatism, and was also troubled with a heart affection. He made application several years ago, Judge T. A. Murrell being his attorney. The attorney had much difficulty in securing proof, as Mr. Flowers' witnesses were scattered, some living in New York and others in the Philippines, but finally a good case was made out and the claim allowed. Mr. Flowers' back pay amounts to nearly five hundred dollars.

AN ACCIDENT.

A party of ministers who left here Tuesday afternoon of last week, en route for Greensburg, met with an accident near the residence of Sherrod Hatcher. The team hooked to the survey became frightened and ran off, upsetting the vehicle. One of the preachers, whose name we have failed to learn, was considerably bruised. The team got loose from the vehicle and could not be overtaken. Two fresh horses were secured from a farmer and the party made it into Greensburg about dark.

Mr. L. C. Blair and Mr. W. A. Garnett have formed a partnership and will go into the mercantile business. They will erect a large store house and will begin business at Glenville. They hope to have their stock opened to the trade by the first of December.

THREE THOUSAND DOLLARS.

Appropriated to Build a Pike from Columbia to the Green County Line.

LOOKS LIKE THE ROAD IS A CERTAINTY.

The Adair County Fiscal Court, all the magistrates present, voted three thousand dollars to be expended in building a pike from here to the Green county line. This place has been building the bridge across Russell's Creek, and it will be no trouble to raise the funds for grading and graveling. Representatives of the other end say that the county of Green will build the road to the Adair line. It looks like a go, and before many months we may expect to hear of every thing being in tangible shape. The building of this pike should stimulate those who are anxious for one to the Cumberland river, and they should work with renewed energy.

ITS FUTURE EFFECT.

Has it occurred to you that the holding of the Louisville Conference in this place has given Columbia the very best advertisement it could possibly get. Over two hundred preachers and laymen from various sections of the State were here, and with one accord, they stated that they were especially pleased with the entertainment they received, and were delighted with the appearance of the town. Many were surprised to see the amount of business that is daily transacted in the place. The News personally met a number of ministers, who took especial delight in "boosting" Columbia, her enterprises and hospitable citizens. In talking to one minister and in answer to the question, "Have you all got comfortable homes?" he said: "I have been a member of Conference a good many years, and Columbia and Campbellsburg have displayed more genuine hospitality than any towns where I have been since I became a member of the body." This was a gratifying statement, and when we took into consideration that these kind words will be spoken by many of the ministers, or expressions to that effect, all over the State, we feel sure that Columbia has been benefited by having Conference with us.

Rev. J. F. Claycomb, preached his farewell sermon at the Presbyterian church last Sunday forenoon. His subject was "Now, men see not the bright light which is in the clouds." The ideas advanced were that all things worked for good. He cited many serious happenings in ancient times and many of recent date, that subsequent years proved that they were for the best. A good congregation heard him. In the beginning of his discourse he stated that his leaving Columbia was not on account of the salary he was receiving, nor his treatment here. He had no complaint to make. His departure was solely to better prepare himself to preach the Gospel.

HENDRICKSON.

Mr. Wm. Hendrickson, who was 87 years old lacking a few days, died at his late residence, Casey's Creek, this county, two weeks ago. He was one of the best citizens in the county, and will be greatly missed. He had been a member of the Christian Church for many years. He reared seven children, all of whom are living, four sons and three daughters. His wife died about ten years ago.

Rev. J. C. Cook will begin a series of meetings at Camp Knox this week.

DEATH OF WM. H. SALLEE.

There was not a man in Adair county perhaps, who was better known than the gentleman whose name heads this article. About two months ago he received a kick from a horse, breaking one of his hips, which caused his death, the end coming Tuesday last.

The deceased was an honorable man, and had many friends throughout the county. He was a brother of the late Judge A. E. Sallee, and the other Sallee boys of the county. Many years ago he served the county as School Superintendent, making a careful officer. The funeral services were held at the late residence Wednesday forenoon, conducted by Rev. J. C. Cook. A great many relatives and friends were present.

The deceased was about sixty-eight years old, and had been a sober, upright citizen during his whole life.

Our sympathy is extended to the surviving members of the family.

CHANDLER.

The residents of Columbia will be sorry to learn of the death of Miss Ella Chandler, which occurred at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Y. Chandler, Hillsboro, Texas, Thursday night, September 26. The deceased was 19 years 11 months and 18 days old and was born in Columbia, her parents removing to Texas when she was a little child. Two years ago she visited her relatives in this place, her modesty and ladylike disposition winning her many friends. She was a grand daughter of Mrs. Anna Strange, and a niece of Mrs. Rollin Hurt and Mrs. Margaret Smith.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

The following marriage licenses were issued from the Adair County Clerk's office during the month of September: W. F. Sparks, to Nannie W. Lewis. W. A. Bryant, to Myrtle McQueary. Jo Rooks, to Lida Taylor. James Kimbier, to Mattie Bryant. Arvin Turner, to Cordia Brockman. O. W. McAllister, to Louise Callison. Luther S. Reese, to Emma England. Wm. Johnson, to Hades Dimpsy.

JONES—SMITH.

Mr. Herbert Jones, a nephew of Judge W. W. Jones, this place, and Miss Ethel Smith, of Dunville, Casey county, were married in the parlors of the Phoenix Hotel, Lexington, last Wednesday morning, Eld. J. O. Montgomery officiating. The groom is cashier of the Waterbury National Bank, Waterbury, Tenn. He is well known to many of the young people of Columbia, having been in school here four years ago. He is an excellent young man. The bride belongs to one of Casey county's best families.

Eld. W. K. Azbill will fill the pulpit at the Methodist church next Sunday forenoon and evening. His subject in the forenoon will be "The Kingdom of Heaven." At the evening services he discourses on "Civil Government." These appointments are on account of the serious illness of the pastor's wife, Mrs. Z. T. Williams.

Hon. W. J. Stone, ex-member of Congress, and at one time Democratic candidate for Governor, will speak at Columbia, Tuesday, October 15. Come and hear him. He will speak at Greensburg the 14th, and at Edmonton the 16th.

Sheriff W. B. Patterson conveyed Will Ed Jones, of color, to the penitentiary last week. It will be remembered that Jones killed his father-in-law, Tom Dudley, and that a jury gave him thirteen years.

Levi Whittell, of Russell county, was conveyed to the Lakeland Asylum last Friday. This makes the seventh time he has been sent to the institution. Family troubles have given him the cause of his derangement.

J. W. BUTLER'S WILL.

its Meaning Is Construed by Judge H. C. Baker.

CONTENTION OF INTERESTED PARTIES.

At the last term of the Adair Circuit Court a motion to construe the will of the late Judge J. W. Butler, came before Judge H. C. Baker, the motion being argued by attorneys on each side.

The contention between the parties was whether Mrs. Butler has a right to the use of any part of the estate except the income arising from it, and whether if Mrs. Bradshaw survives her mother, Mrs. Butler, her interest is a life estate or an absolute ownership.

It was adjudged by the Court that Bettie W. Butler has an estate for life, in the property of John W. Butler left after payment of special device, debts and costs of administration, with a right to use any part of the principal of the estate, if it becomes necessary for her comfortable support, but for no other purpose.

Mrs. Butler was represented by Judge W. W. Jones and Mr. James Garnett; Mrs. Bradshaw by Mr. Henry Aaron, and the Butler heirs by Hon. J. F. Montgomery and Mr. Rollin Hurt.

Mrs. Butler's claim for fifteen hundred dollars, advanced to her husband in building house, was adjudged as a valid claim against the estate.

TO THE LADIES.

I will arrive at your store Tuesday Oct. 8th, to demonstrate the excellence of the Beauty Corset; will have with me six handsome corset display forms for window exhibition.

MAB HARRISON,

Expert Corsetiere.

Referring to the above I will say that Miss Harrison arrived at day (Tuesday) and will be glad for the ladies to call on her at our store. You know the importance of having a corset to fit properly. She is thoroughly familiar with her work and will select the style and fit the corset for you perfectly. You are cordially invited to come to see her.

RUSSELL & CO.

FARM FOR SALE.

I desire to sell my farm containing 982 acres lying on the pike 1/2 mile from Cane Valley Ky. It is in a good state of cultivation all under fence well watered. There is upon it a good dwelling containing six rooms, all well finished, an inexhaustible well, and all necessary outbuildings. Plenty of timber to keep up the farm, and two good orchards. This farm is within one-half mile of post-office school and churches and bank. Cane Valley is a first-class country town. W. S. GRIFFIN, 48-tf, Cane Valley, Ky.

Mr. H. C. Feese has the contract to build a large two-story store house for Blain & Garnett, Glenfork, Ky. work to begin about Oct. 21st. Mr. Feese also has a contract to build a veranda, 100 feet long, for W. M. Wilmore, Gradyville Ky., the work on this to begin about Nov. 1st.

The trial of James A. Shipp, charged with murdering Jo Smith, of Campbellsburg, has been in progress at Lebanon for several days. The killing occurred in Campbellsburg, and a change of venue sent Shipp to Marion county for trial. This is the second trial, the first one resulting in a life sentence.

Capt. J. W. Stone is one of the best speakers on the stump. He is out in the interest of the Democratic State ticket. He will be here next Tuesday, the 15th. Come and hear him.

Remember that J. W. Newnan will speak here next Saturday. He is a candidate for Commissioner of Agriculture on the Democratic ticket and will make a good speech.

Hon. W. J. Stone at the court house Tuesday October 15.

LOCAL OPTION'S STRENGTH.

The following statement regarding the State where license and local option exist in varying degrees, compiled by temperance advocates, is of interest:

Alabama—Majority of counties dry, part of others also. A county option law has just been passed, moving for State prohibition within next two or three years.

Arkansas—Sixty out of seventy-five counties dry. Much dry territory in other counties.

California—Four dry counties and much dry territory in other counties.

Colorado—Local option law, 1907.

Connecticut—Town local option; ninety-six no-license to seventy-two license town.

Delaware—Half dozen dry town. State no-license campaign on, vote November 5, 1907.

Florida—Thirty dry counties out of forty-five. Few saloons in the State. Move for State prohibition, led by Gov. Broward.

Idaho—License. Sunday law only, passed in 1905.

Illinois—Probably 500 dry towns. Local option law recently passed. Two dry counties.

Indiana—Three dry counties; 710 dry townships out of 1,016 half of population in dry territory.

Iowa—Sixty-five out of ninety-nine counties dry. Eleven other counties having only one saloon town. Move for State prohibition again under way.

Kentucky—Ninety-seven out of 119 counties dry. Only four counties wholly wet. Saloon closed on Sundays.

Louisiana—Seven-eighths of the State dry. Orders may not be solicited or received in dry territory.

Maryland—Fourteen out of twenty-three counties dry.

Massachusetts—Local option by cities and towns. 250 being dry and 100 wet. Laws strict and well enforced.

Michigan—County option, with a few dry counties. No chance to vote by smaller unit. If county votes wet, it reverses dry vote in small unit.

Minnesota—License, with village local option; 123 dry municipalities. Sunday closing in entire State.

Mississippi—Sixty-eight out of seventy-five counties dry. State prohibition campaign actively under way.

Missouri—Forty out of 116 counties dry. Sunday closing rapidly enforced by Gov. Folk.

Montana—License.

Nebraska—Village and city option, 400 dry and 600 wet towns.

Nevada—License, with little restriction. No chance to vote on the question of license.

New Hampshire—Nominally prohibition, modified by local sentiment. Trend is toward prohibition; 62 per cent. of population in dry territory.

New Jersey—Local option law.

New York—Town and township option; 300 towns dry.

North Carolina—Few saloons. Campaigning for State prohibition.

tion, with Governor leading in fight.

Ohio—One thousand one hundred and forty out of 2,376 Township dry. Sixty per cent of municipalities dry and 350,000 people living in dry residence districts in wet cities. County prohibition assured probably next session.

Oregon—Twelve dry counties and 170 dry municipalities in other counties.

Oklahoma—Oklahoma 537 saloons in State. Part formerly Indiana Territory has had prohibition for twenty-one years, and constitutional convention adopted similar provision, which now applies to entire State.

Pennsylvania—License, with privilege of remonstrance.

Rhode Island—Sixteen dry municipalities out of thirty-eight. South Carolina—Recently passed county local option and repealed dispensary law. Move for State prohibition following Georgia victory.

South Dakota—Large sections of State dry.

Tennessee—Saloons excluded from all but three municipalities in the State. State prohibition predicted within three years.

Texas—Two third of the State dry, local option. State prohibition campaign under way.

Utah—License.

Vermont—dry save for twenty-four municipalities. Entire State and every county in the State shows a majority against license. State prohibition expected shortly.

Virginia—Much dry territory. Washington—License, with but fifty dry towns.

West Virginia—thirty dry out of fifty-five. Governor publicly opposes the liquor traffic.

Wisconsin—Local option, with 650 dry communities.

Arizona—License.

District of Columbia—Ratio of saloons to population reduced more than half during the last fifteen years.

New Mexico—License.

HE MUST KNOW.

The county editor must and does depend upon his friends to help make his paper interesting. Show some interest in your local paper, give all the information you can to the publisher. Marriages, births, deaths, or any little items may interest some one. Such items are often absent simply because you don't let the editor know of them. Did you ever think what a steady letter a newspaper is. Week after week it goes on telling of the little things that happen in your neighborhood. If you undertook to write half as much as the paper tells, you would give up in despair. The letters would grow shorter and further apart and finally cease. People should recognize this and take pleasure in giving the editor items he would otherwise miss.

A HAND FOR THE TEMPERED.

It is no great virtue to be brave when we have neither trials nor temptations. One man may walk down the avenue with the liquor interests flouting their device on every hand, and he may have only a deeping disgust for the whole business. There is no temptation and it requires neither courage nor self-control for him to walk in the midst of these enticements. But to some unfortunate one who is addicted to the use of strong drink, and is trying manfully to overcome his besetting sin, to him it is a temptation to go down that avenue. He must walk with a prayer on his lips and courage in his heart that he may overcome the snares that are set for him. He is running a gauntlet of fire. He needs the help of God and a brother's hand. It is the man with the appetite who needs to pray that the angel of the Lord may be round about him. He should have our sympathy and our help that he may pass through this furnace of fire unscathed. To place temptation in the way of the man who is doing his best to reform, is worse than to put a stumbling block in the way of the blind.—United Presbyterian.

AMERICAN WOMEN NOT DRUNKARDS.

Because a few poor, idle, useless society women, lacking employment for brain or hands, have taken to drinking more than is good for them, certain people who ought to know better raise the cry that the women of America are becoming drunkards. Silly and stupid statement.

Not only is drinking very rare among the real womanhood of this country, but drunkenness among men is rapidly growing less. Whiskey is in retreat. Whiskey drinkers are quietly but not the less effectively made aware of public disapproval.

It used to be a rather amiable weakness in a merchant a lawyer, or a physician that he should occasionally be overcome by drink.

What man will to-day employ a drunken doctor or retain a drunken lawyer or do business with a drunken merchant? What chance has a drunken clerk or a drunken mechanic to get a position or to hold one?

The world grows wiser every day and in nothing has it shown greater growth in wisdom than in this matter of repudiating drink and drunkards. We still have a long way to go before all men will use alcohol in moderation or not at all, but we are still making progress.

Men drink less and less. As for women, we repeat that the great mass of self-respecting, industrious American womanhood is as far from drink slavery as it is from drug slavery.

Both additions are desperate resort of the weary, idle rich.—Elizabethtown News.

INGERSOL ON NAPOLEON.

A little while ago I stood by the grave of the great Napoleon, a magnificent tomb of gilt and gold. I saw him take an empire by the force of his genius. I saw him upon the fruitful field of Waterloo, when chance and fate combined to wreck the fortunes of the former king, and I saw him at St. Helena with his hands crossed behind him gazing out at the sad and solemn sea, I thought of the orphans and widows he had made of the tears that had been shed for his glory, and of the only woman who had ever loved him pushed from his heart by the cruel hand of ambition, and I said I would rather have been a French peasant and worn wooden shoes. I would rather have been that poor peasant with my loving wife by my side, knitting as the day died out in the skies, with my children upon my knees and their arms about me. I would rather have been that man and gone to the tongueless silence of the dreamless dust than to have been that impartial impersonation of force and murder known as Napoleon the Great.

SHOWING ITS TRUE COLORS.

The Louisville Herald had an article from its "Special Correspondent" at Danville, stating that Dr. Bruner, the Republican candidate for Secretary of State, spoke to a throng of 700 cheering and enthusiastic hearers there on the night of 23rd, and that many Democrats pledged their support to the Republican ticket. The correspondent at that place said he never sent any telegram to the Herald. Dr. Bruner did not speak there that night at all. But this makes no difference to a paper of the ilk of the Louisville Herald, whose staff man traveling with Mr. Wilson, files his daily reports along the same line. A paper like that is injuring instead of helping the Republican cause in this race.—Somerset News.

KENTUCKY BELLES.

A little about the trip given by the Louisville Herald to a number of Kentucky young ladies. Miss Lorena Pile, of this place, is one of the party:

"Look at the water!"

"Aint it grand!"

"Say, this is the best ever!"

The above exclamations of amazement and admiration were echoed at the Hotel Iroquois, and in a measure, conveyed the first impressions of a bevy of Kentucky belles who arrived from Louisville to the "Queen" resort.

The attractive visitors came all the way from the Blue Grass State in a private palace car, and are being chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Drewry. Mr. Drewry is the assistant managing editor of the Louisville Herald, an influential and widely circulated daily and Sunday newspaper, and he has arranged the pleasant outing for the fair guests.

The Louisville Herald has been conducting a subscription contest for the past few weeks and among the other awards, arranged an outing to Atlantic for fifteen fair contestants, included among the prize winners.

GREAT FUN ON TRIP.

Mr. Drewry is one of those kind of Kentuckians that are featured about in the popular novels. He is thoroughbred through and through, and although he has been here but a few hours, has already made a host of friends.

The trip to the shore was one round of pleasure. Mr. Drewry was the only man in the party, and just one sidelong look at the fair Kentucky belles was enough to make him the envy of the masculine gender in general.

The girls had the time of their lives aboard the train, and kept things in an uproar with their merry pranks.

At every station they were selected for a troupe of theatrical folks, and the fair tourists enjoyed that immensely.

Manager Murphy, of the Iroquois, mapped out a program for their five day's stay here that takes in everything from bathing to riding the beach ponies.

The girls are really an excellent demonstration of Kentucky beauty, and they have graciously agreed to pose for a picture this morning for the Press man, who hastened to pay his respects last evening and was accorded a real Kentucky welcome.

The tourists left Louisville September 19, and upon leaving here they will visit Philadelphia, New York, Washington, the Jamestown Exposition, returning to Louisville on October 4.

THE BELLES.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Frank G. Drewry, the tourists include: Miss C. D. Elkins, Miss Blanche Steeber, Miss Lucy Brown, Miss Celand Everett, Miss Mattie Summers, Miss Maud Elliott, Miss Emma Glaser, Miss Sesiela Schnepf, Miss Lara Cooper, Miss Myrtle Boling, Miss Mary E. Price, Miss Kathryn Mitchell and Miss Lorena Pile.—Atlantic City Daily Press.

KIND WORDS.

My Dear Friend:—

Did you ever stop to think of the value of kind words? They are the jewels of a good heart—no one ever regretted using a kind word, or wished to recall it. It is the unkind words that hurt, not only to those to whom they are spoken, but those who utter them. The wound which they make may be healed by soothing apology, but the scar will remain forever. The great secret of power is kindness. Lions, elephants, tigers and every wild beast have been subdued by the scepter of kindness, and its influence is same in men, women and children.

Kind words and acts do more to influence the world than anything else. They soften the hardest heart and subdue without passion. These are priceless, yet cost nothing, it is easier to speak a kind word than a harsh one. How pleasant it is to see a family who have none but kind words for each other, where each one contributes a share to the common comfort and happiness of all.

Kind words are the expressions of a good heart, a noble soul, yet they are without price. How often we neglect to use them, how often we speak ill of each other and find fault when it profits us nothing, and does untold injury to the one spoken of. There is nothing in this old world of ours that is so cheap and yet of such priceless value as kind words. Dear Friends, try them for one day, and when you "check up" accounts at night your own contentment and the approval of your own conscience will convince you that there is nothing in this old world that will pay such large dividends on a small investment, as kind words. A. R. FEESE.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.For United States Senator,
J. C. W. BECKHAM.For Governor,
SAMUEL W. HAGER.
For Lieutenant Governor,
SOUTH TRIMBLE.For Secretary of State,
HUBERT VRELAND.For Attorney General,
JOHN K. HENDRICK.For Auditor,
HENRY M. BOSWORTH.For Treasurer,
RUBY LAFFOON.For Commissioner of Agriculture,
J. W. NEWMAN.For Supt. of Public Instruction,
M. O. WINFREY.For Clerk Court of Appeals,
JOHN B. CHENAULT.For Representative,
LOGAN C. WINFREY.

We take pleasure in placing the name of Hon. L. C. Winfrey, candidate to Represent Adair and Cumberland, in the Democratic ticket which heads this column. He is a gentleman of honor and ability, an enterprising citizen and will make a watchful legislator. Every man who wants qualifications in a Representative should vote for Mr. Winfrey. See sketch on first page.

The Campaign Hand-book of the Republican party in Kentucky, the real platform of that party in the present State campaign, the document from which the leaders of that party expect their orators to get inspiration for the work upon the stump among the voters, has been issued by its Campaign Committee. Aside from its own Campaign Hand-book, and the literature which it is distributing, the Democratic State Campaign Committee could find no better document to place in the hands of its speakers with which to explode and clear up the Republican charges of mismanagement of the public affairs of Kentucky during eight years past. Like August E. Willson, the Republican gubernatorial nominee, the author of this Republican publication has demonstrated that he is a clumsy dodger on the live issues of the campaign; that he isn't even an expert at juggling figures in an effort to show a bad financial condition for the Commonwealth, and has contented himself with reviving matters brought up a year ago by a defeated candidate for gubernatorial honors, and which the people of Kentucky then had an opportunity to investigate and found without foundation in fact. Also with reproducing so-called editorials from a Frankfort paper, which ceased publication for lack of support, a veritable campaign sheet, issued by disgruntled Democratic politicians making a factional fight within the party. With such misrepresentation abused by men who, like Mr. Willson, have been unsuccessful in every political ambition, the author of this campaign Hand-book contents himself, hoping thereby to draw to the Republican side such Democrats as were not lined up on the side of those who were successful in the Democratic State primary election of last year. Not a word does this Republican publication contain regarding the flagrant violations of law by use and abuse of the military power during the dark days of Bradley and Taylor, from 1896 to 1900; not a word of criticism has it, as had William Marshall Bullitt in the convention which nominated Mr. Willson, for the murderers of William Goebel, or of Republicans in power at that time, and who are now fugitives from justice, declining even to return under promise of immunity from arrest, offered by the Commonwealth that the Goebel murder may be laid bare in all of its details by those who were responsible for its commission. With an announced motto "The Firm, but Judicious, Enforcement of all Laws," and a reproduction of the weak, vacillating, plank of the Republican platform upon temperance, and not a word upon the important subject of observance of the Sabbath Day Laws, the book authorizes the Republican speakers, for whose information it is intended, to dodge about on these live questions and issues, and to talk to suit the community in which the speaker happens to be at the time he has them under discussion. It reproduces the letter of the Rev. Dr. E. L. Powell, of Louisville, charging Governor Beckham with being insincere in his fight for temperance and of observance of the Sabbath, a letter which has been discreted in its every line by the policy which the Governor pursued in the city of Louisville. The author and publisher didn't ask the Rev. Dr. Powell for his latest views on this matter, or he would have had a contrary view to publish. The word "Judicious" inserted in the Republican motto on the opening page of the publication is undoubtedly the loop hole through which the Campaign Committee expects the Republican gubernatorial nominee to escape, should he ever have the good fortune to be at the head of the government of Kentucky. This rather remarkable publication contains, from beginning to the close, rumors and hints of what it plays up in black face type as "Graft," but not in a single instance does it make the charge specifically, always contenting itself with reference to an editorial of an unfriendly newspaper, and going only far enough, as its Editor thinks, to arouse a suspicion that all is not right in the affairs of government. Representatives of the Republican party, among them Postmasters, and the former private Secretary of the fugitive, William S. Taylor, had access for months to every Department at Frankfort, and right well did they work in a fruitless effort to fasten these insinuations of "Graft" upon the officials in power. After all that work, their Campaign Hand-book issues, and it can do no better than to reprint and reproduce utterances of disgruntled persons who spent as much time as did they in seeking what could not be found, corruption or wrongdoing by the Democratic officials whom the people have trusted for eight years past. The cry of a "look at the books" which won for them in 1895, falls flat this year.

The Franklin county grand jury returned an indictment charging Caleb Powers, now being held in the Goebel assassination case, and others with conspiring together with intent to procure others to swear falsely as witnesses in the Scott Circuit Court, to the effect that Henry Youtsey, of Newport, now in the State prison under conviction of complicity in the Goebel case, had admitted that he fired the shot which killed Gov. Goebel in January, 1900. The others indicted with Powers are: Howard M. Benton, of Newport, a lawyer; Jennie Gentry, alias Julia Sars, of Lexington, and Dave Cushing, said to be of Kenton county.

Clarence Sturgeon, a native of Marion county, is to hang in Louisville November 15. In Louisville, last June, in a house of ill-fame, he killed three men over a woman. Some months after the killing of the men the woman in the case committed suicide. Sturgeon is about 23 or 24 years old. Women and wine were his downfall and in a very few weeks he will know the reality of an unknown world.

There is no let up on the part of Democratic orators. They are making an effort to have the voters of the State give Hager the largest majority for many years. One Republican who heard ex-Gov. Bradley speak at Greensburg told us what he thought of the speech. Were it not for violating confidence we would give the readers of the News his opinion of it.

The Court of Appeals deciding last week held that it was not in the province of this state to regulate or control interstate commerce. Hence as the law now stands there is no way to prevent liquor dealers outside of Kentucky from shipping their goods into local option districts. Congress will have to pass a law to protect local option territory.

Court of Claims was in session last week and about the usual allowances were made. Judge Hancock being sick Esquire W. E. Hancock presided over the court.

HAVE SIX GOOD STALLIONS, there are none better and all are descendants of the most popular trotting and saddle horse families. All are royal bred, grand individuals and proving themselves great sires. Have size and finish, and are fashionable colors. The fee of each horse is certainly very reasonable and within the reach of all and you can make no mistake to breed to any one of them. All my stallions did a good business the past season and I hope they will do better this season and with the assistance of my friends they will. Your patronage earnestly solicited. OBITUARY.

The grim messenger whose name is death, and who never turns alone, entered the home of Mrs. Fannie Montgomery Sept. 24, 1907, and claim for his victim, her youngest son, Robert Elbert, aged 31 years. Elbert was a young man of many noble traits of character—his devotion to his blind mother, was very touching. He was a school teacher by profession, having taught in both Adair and Casey county.

He leaves a mother, three brothers, two sisters and a host of relatives and friends, to mourn their loss, his father and one sister having preceded him to the grave. All that kind and loving hands could do, was done, but God in his all wise providence saw fit to remove him from the walks of life, to the unknown beyond. To the grief stricken mother I can only say, lean on him whose grace is sufficient in all times of need and who never forsakes those who put their trust in him.

Elbert was ever ready to help those who needed help and never turned a deaf ear to any worthy cause. His remains were laid to rest in the family burying ground and his spirit has gone to the God who gave it.

May the mother, brothers and sisters so live that they will be a reunited family around God's throne without a missing one, is the sincere wish and prayer of A Friend.

Thomas A. Edison the great American inventor, says "Fully eighty per cent of the illness of mankind comes from eating improper food or too much food; people are inclined to over-indulge themselves." This is where indigestion finds its beginning in nearly every case. The stomach can do just so much work and no more, and when you overload it or when you eat the wrong kind of food, the digestive organs cannot possibly do the work demanded of them, it is at such times that the stomach needs help and warns you by headaches, belching, sour stomach, nausea and indigestion. You should attend to this at once by taking something that will actually do the work for the stomach. Kodol will do this. It is a combination of natural digestants and vegetable acids and contains the same juices found in a healthy stomach. It is pleasant to take. It digests what you eat. Sold by Page & Dohoney.

Sour Stomach

No appetite, loss of strength, nervousness, headache, constipation, bad breath, general debility, sour ridges, and catarrh of the stomach are all due to indigestion. Kodol relieves indigestion. This new discovery represents the natural process of digestion as they exist in a healthy stomach, combined with the greatest known tonic and reconstructive properties. Kodol for dyspepsia does not only relieve indigestion and dyspepsia, but this famous remedy helps all stomach troubles by cleansing, purifying, sweetening and strengthening the mucous membranes lining the stomach.

Mr. E. B. Bell, of Ravenswood, W. Va., says: "I was troubled with sour stomach for twenty years. Kodol cured me and we are now using it in milk for baby."

MELL.

A fine crop of tobacco is cut and housed in this community, and excellent weather prevails for curing same.

Exie had a local flood last Saturday night. Greasy creek was higher than it was on the 7th of last June. It washed away part of the Roller Mill at Liletown, also other damages were reported.

Tobe Grose, (of color) sold 2½ acres of tobacco to D. B. Dowell for $225.

Robert Dohoney purchased O. B. Finn's farm and place of business, consideration $1500. Containing 72 acres of rich tobacco land. This farm joins Robert's original 100 acre home tract.

O. B. Finn has bought a farm near Campbellsville for $4200, containing 125 acres of good level land, with crop and various kinds of machinery included, also 3 mules and several head of cattle.

Robert Dohoney and wife, returned from the State Fair last Sunday. They attended Southern Indiana day and the gorgeous reception given Vice President Fairbanks at the Fair grounds.

Messrs. Lawrence Bagby and Leonard Wilcox, Exie, returned from the Exposition at James-town Sunday.

Out Of Sight.

"Out of sight, out of mind," is an old saying which applies with special force to a sore, burn or wound that's been treated with Bucklen's Arnica Salve. It's out of sight, and out of mind and out of existence. Piles too and chilblains disappear under its healing influence. Guaranteed by T. E. Paull, Druggist. 25c.

LILETOWN.

We had a regular washout here last Saturday night. It left the roads impassible in some places. Greasy creek was higher than it was ever known before, it was higher than it was the 7th, of June—just liked 2 inches getting in Hubbard's & Mitchell's store. It damaged corn a great deal.

Several from this place attended the Fair at Louisville.

Mrs. Sara Penic died on the 12th, with stomach trouble. She leaves 2 grandsons and a host of relatives and friends to mourn her loss.

Several from this place attended the Conference at Columbia last week.

Mr. Philmore Kinnard and family, of Red Lick, visited relatives at this place from last Friday 'till Sunday.

Vester Dills and wife, returned from Indianapolis on the 16th, where they have been visiting relatives.

S. V. Mills and family visited at Knob Lick last Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. Delia Pruitt, who has been confined to her room for several months with dropsy, is no better.

Miss Edna Bell, who has been staying with J. A. Hubbard, has gone to Columbia to live with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs.

A Criminal Attack

on an inoffensive citizen is frequently made in that apparently useless little tube call "appendix." It's generally the result of protracted constipations following liver torpor. Dr. King's New Life Pills regulate the liver, prevent appendicitis, and establish regular habit of the bowels. 25c. at T. E. Paull, drug store.

DIRIGO.

Miss Lizzie Strange, Glensfork, visited relative here a few days last week.

J. R. Cummins has landed in home with this wheat thresher. Our farmers say their wheat has kept good and the yield is just as good as if the wheat had been threshed earlier in the season.

Miss Annie Lee Strange visited relatives at Glenville first of the week.

R. E. Strange, who has a position at Greensburg, was at home a day or so last week.

Henry Moss, Greensburg, was here last Thursday.

J. W. McClister and J. M. Campbell did business at Columbia last Wednesday.

Miss Bettie Strange is on the sick list this week.

J. G. Campbell is at Scottsville this week.

The Tennessee Supreme Court has declared the Pendleton law constitutional. After November 1 there will be no saloons in Tennessee except in the cities of Memphis, Nashville, Chattanooga and La Follette.

John Bell.

J. A. Hubbard was in Greensburg one day last week on business.

His Dear Old Mother.

"My dear old mother, who is now eighty three years old, thrives on Electric Bitters," writes W. B. Brunson, of Dublin, Ga. "She has taken them for about two years and enjoys an excellent appetite, feels strong and sleeps well." That's the way Electric Bitters affect the aged, and the same happy results follow in all cases of female weakness and general debility. Weak, puny children too, are greatly strengthened by them. Guaranteed also for stomach, liver and kidney troubles, by T. E. Paull, Druggist. 50c.

PURDY.

Corn cutting and molasses making is the order of the day in this vicinity.

Mr. W. B. Gills and wife visited in Green county last week.

WITH OUR CORRESPONDENTS

Week's Happenings—News Important or Otherwise as Reported By Our Corps of Correspondents.

COBURG.

After seeing the sights at the big State Fair, and giving the News time to dispose of Circuit Court and the Methodist Conference, your correspondent concluded that perhaps there might be space for a few articles of news from this place. We will, however, be brief, knowing that the present political campaign demands a great deal of your attention.

Owen Stubbs has again embarked in the goods business at Coburg, and taken back under his care the post office and Hop Davis, our post master. This now makes three stores for Coburg. One could do well here, but competition is the life of trade.

The school mistress, of Caney Fork, and many others took in the Bradley speaking at Greensburg, Monday, but your scribe forgot all about it.

Robert Elmore, Dr. Booker, Will Penick, and many more of the Camp Knox country attended the State Fair last week.

Mr. James White, of Camp Knox, has accepted a position as toll gate keeper at Cane Valley, and moved with his family to that place.

Jim Hare, who has been confined for several weeks with typhoid fever, is slowly improving.

The big traction engine purchased from the Case Machine Co., by the lumber company operating here, arrived the first of the week, and is being operated by an expert machinist, and has been making daily trips with large loads of logs to Campbellsville.

Mrs. L. A. Cowherd accompanied by her son, Dessa, daughter, Mrs. T. S. Scott, and grandson, Master Eddie Scott, left for Bowling Green Thursday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Lander Scott.

Mr. Frank Johnston, wife and children, of Kansas, who formerly lived here have been visiting relatives at this place the past two weeks.

J. C. Rice and Clay Bennett, of Cane Valley, with their big steam boiler have just wound up bailing 100,000 pounds of hay on Caney Fork, by Branch Sublett, J. T. Sublett and T. S. Scott.

Prof. Jack Sanders, of Campbellsville, was on Caney Fork, last week in the interest of a normal school at Cane Valley the coming winter. He with others held an educational meeting at the Christian church at that place Wednesday night. It is claimed for Prof. Sanders that his work as an educator ranks with the best in the State, and it is to be hoped that the people of that place will be awakened to their interest and not miss the opportunity of securing his services and build up a school that will prove the life of the place.

GRADYVILLE.

We had a fine rain last Friday.

Our farmers are all through cutting tobacco.

J. A. Diddle was transacting business in Columbia last Friday.

William England, of Edmonton, passed through here last Wednesday en route for Columbia.

Mrs. Diddle Bragg and her daughter, Miss Sallie, is spending this week at Edmonton.

W. L. Grady's Dodd horse has been sick for the past week.

Rev. G. P. Dillon, of Glasgow, filled the pulpit at the M. E. church last Tuesday night with a very interesting discourse.

Mr. W. C. Hill, our efficient barber, is spending this week at Edmonton.

Mr. Geo. H. Nell attended circuit court at Edmonton last Monday.

Dr. Bowling, the optician, of Canmar, spent a few days in our city last week. The Dr. always does a good business when he makes our place.

J. A. Diddle received a nice lot of wheat from Green county last week.

Mr. William Gowen, the proprietor of the Gowen Hotel at Edmonton, was in our midst one day last week.

Our farmers are preparing for large crop of wheat for another season.

The rock wall that has been under the care of Mr. S. H. Harper, is now completed and certainly is a nice, good job, and we trust will be a great benefit to our town.

Prof. P. C. McCaffree was shaking hands with his many friends in our town one day last week.

Mrs. Ella Y. Robertson was on the sick list a few days of last week.

Please take notice, who ever has C. S. Bell's teeth will please return them. He needs them three times a day.

Dr. Menzies, wife and son, of Columbia, passed through here last Thursday en route for Red Lick. They will also attend the C. Presbytery before they return.

Rev. G. P. Dillon and wife, of Glasgow, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Diddle one night last week on their return from Conference at Columbia.

Miss Mollie Flowers, who has been visiting her brother, and family at Columbia for the past week returned home Saturday.

Mr. Eugene Nell, the efficient salesman of Nell & Nell, spent Saturday night and Sunday at Edmonton.

While in conversation with Mr. W. L. Grady a few days ago, he informed your reporter that he was just in receipt of a letter from his brother, J. A. Grady, who left this place about one year ago for the Lone Star State, in which he stated that he had picked and delivered thirteen bales of cotton at $65.00 per bale and was through. Also had sixty acres of fine corn, and what time he was not engaged in his crop he and his son had all the carpenters work they could do at $2 and $2.50 each, per day, and besides all of this his family has enjoyed good health during the year and was delighted with the country. Luther says his brother made more money this year than he made all of his life time put together. Mr. Grady has rented for another year. Also informed his brother that all of the Kentucky people had done well this year.

Mr. Thos. Dowell, one of our best farmers as well as citizens sold his farm a few days ago to J. A. Diddle for $6000. Mr. Dowell has bought one of the best farms in Green county (to wit) the Jordan groves farm for $8000. We certainly regret to give Mr. Dowell and family up for we know they are good citizens and can heartily commend them to any community.

Judge J. G. Winfrey, of Evansville, Ind, formerly a citizen of this place, is advocating a whipping post law for wife beaters in his State. If ever a man needed to be publicly whipped it is the one who abuses and whips the companion of his bosom, the woman that he obligated himself to love and protect.

Judge Jas. S. Morris, of Oldham county, has been appointed special Judge to try Caleb Powers in the Scott circuit court. As soon as the appointment was announced Powers telegraphed Judge Morris, asking for a trial at his earliest convenience.
